Forecast For Northeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Saturday 10 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Unsettled at first but improving from midweek.

This Evening and Tonight:
Isolated heavy or thundery showers at first will soon dissipate. Some clear spells develop, but along the coast low cloud may linger. After midnight mist and fog patches may form inland. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Sunday:
Early mist or fog patches will quickly clear to bright or sunny spells. Scattered showers will soon develop, these slow moving with the light winds, and also heavy at times. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Monday and Tuesday sunny spells and showers, and possibly patchy coastal low cloud. Monday showers will often be heavy, and sometimes with hail and thunder. Wednesday mainly dry and fine.
